

Inter-state commerce began holding its sessions. More speedily than any advocate of the rate regulation could have hoped, the opposition has melted away and left the assurance that the senate committee will report, the senate will pass and the house will accept, a bill embodying the plan which the president advocates.

There is no compromise in sight. The president made it plain to his opponents that it was useless to discuss anything of the kind, for he would not consent to it. His backers in the committee were equally insistent on this point.

There is one thing certain, and that is, when the administration's bill comes up before the senate for consideration no republican senator can afford to go before the country as being opposed to the measure. The country is abashed over this question, people regardless of party affiliations are demanding in emphatic terms that congress stand by the wishes of the president. Any senator or representative who goes out record as opposing the president's views will very likely suffer defeat for re-election and be relegated to obscurity.

PECOS JUDGE ARRAIGNS GOVERNOR

The territory, who is also a candidate for a third term, declared at a banquet recently given to the governor by his appointees that he was in favor of the governor not only for a third term, but for as many terms as he desired, and the governor, of course, entertains the same sentiment toward the chief justice. The Otero administration will go down into history as the most extravagant one that the territory has ever experienced.

PEOPLE BELIEVED TO GET BUSINESS-LIKE GOVERNOR

"The president will never render the people of New Mexico a better service than his appointment of Herbert J. Hagerman to the position of governor. Mr. Hagerman is a young man of extraordinary executive ability, quiet and unassuming, and it will be a great relief to the people of the territory to have a purely business administration take the place of the one characterized by petty politics, and the appointment will give general satisfaction to the people of the territory."

"The great masses of the people in New Mexico of both parties are extremely friendly to Mr. Hagerman. Roosevelt, they admire his free, frank, and fearless manner. They are particularly in favor of his policy on the rate question. Being citizens of the territory rather than a state, they do not enjoy the protection of the present inter-state commerce legislation."

"If we could be admitted into the union with Arizona, the new state would soon become one of the best of the sisterhood; but we are confronted with a solid phalanx of office holders who desire to defeat the creation of a state which they cannot control. They should be a change."

"If officeholding is honorable and profitable, two terms, or eight years, are as long a period as one citizen should expect to enjoy; and if it is a burden, it is as long as any one citizen should be required to bear it."

"Things got into a rut, especially in a territory like New Mexico, situated remotely from the seat of government. It was Charles L. Leide, who said that even the best of citizens were occasionally to be burned out. I prefer the way that Mr. Roosevelt puts it, and it was not for roasting an old chestnut, but I would like to see that if the president is to redeem his promise to give New Mexico a 'square deal,' he will have to use a new deck."

New Appointments.

George L. Vaughn has been appointed postmaster at Columbus, Luna county, New Mexico, vice Frank M. Gough, resigned. Thomas J. Holmes has been named for the office at Gallup, Luna county, in the place of Annie E. Rogers.

William G. Brown, of Carlsbad, N. M., has been issued a patent on a nut splitter.

Among New Mexico visitors in Washington, are Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cotton, of Gallup, and Mr. and Mrs. King Seabury, of El Paso.

New York, Dec. 1.—The recount of ballots in five New York counties in the New York contested majority election was ordered to be begun today by Justice Amend in the supreme court. Justice Amend modified his original order so as to limit the canvassing to the candidates for mayor, comptroller and president of the board of aldermen, and also to eliminate from the recount the void and protested ballots.

GIRL'S SECRET.

"Aunt Cassie came to visit us and she saw I was nervous, had the fillets all the time, and she asked me many questions, and finally said, 'Why, you dear, sweet girl, it's not your temper that's bad, it's your constitution that's out of kilter. You sit right down now and write a letter to Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., tell him all your symptoms—and so I did. It wasn't long before I had a long reply, carefully going over my case and telling me just what to do. I date my present happiness and little Cupid's return to the very day I sat down to write that letter to Dr. Pierce, for his advice was so good and his 'Favorite Prescription' worked such a complete change in me that now my former cheerfulness and good health—restored to me. I have summoned Tom back to my side and we are to be married in June.'"

The proprietors and makers of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of the Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

It is natural that a woman who has been cured of womanly diseases by "Favorite Prescription" should believe that it will cure others. It is natural too that she should recommend to other women the medicine which has cured her. It is such commendation which has made the name of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a household word for the past thirty-eight years.

FORMER KOREAN MINISTER CUTS HIS OWN THROAT

Personal Aide to Emperor Commits Suicide.

Seoul, Dec. 1.—Min Yung Whan, a personal aide to the emperor and a cousin of the late queen, committed suicide this morning. He was a special envoy from Korea to Queen Victoria's jubilee and the coronation of Emperor Nicholas II. of Russia.

Within the past few days Min Yung Whan headed a body of 200 officials who gathered first at the palace and later at the supreme court to protest against the Japanese protectorate. The emperor ordered them to leave both court and palace. Realizing the hopelessness of his cause, Min Yung Whan went early this morning to the house of an old retainer and cut his own throat. He was popular with foreigners and natives and his suicide has greatly affected local sentiment.

The streets are thronged with the whispering, but orderly crowd.

The Leide family has been due to friction which has existed for some time and which grew to such proportions that it could be no longer kept within business bounds."
